ON INTELLIGENCE

WASHINGTON, D.C. 20515

Mr. Harry Fitzwater
Deputy Director for Administration
Central Intelligence Agency
Washington, D.C. 20505

Dear Harry:

The trip we recently took to a major Agency training site was quite informative. I was especially impressed with the ability of your training people to do so much at a relatively small cost to the taxpayers.

The Agency's training efforts, and in particular its efforts to train its personnel to operate safely and effectively in hostile surroundings, demonstrates the Agency's belief that its people are its most important resource.

I appreciated very much your efforts to brief me on the Agency's training programs. Please extend my special thanks to the chief of the training site, the chief of special activity training at the site, and the officer possessed of consummate explosives expertise, teaching ability, and comedic skills, who briefed us on the terrorist explosives threat.

Sincerely,
